

against the newspaper trust, and the police had no right to order The Day Book off the stands.

What the next move of Big Business, Special Privilege and the Newspaper Trust, to suppress free speech and a free press in Chicago will be, remains to be seen.

The Day Book will be ready for any attempt that may be made, and we are grateful to the men and women who volunteered to sell The Day Book on the streets if the trust press succeeded in driving it off the stands, but it looks now as if that will not be necessary.

However, if you find The Day Book isn't on a newsstand where you have found it before, ask why, and don't stop asking until you find out.

In the meantime you will find real news in The Day Book right along that you won't find in the trust papers.
